1. At VEB Kabelwerk Meissen there are plans to increase norms up to 70 percent in some departments. When these plans became known, workers and machinists held a meeting where they protested against the plans to increase norms and reminded plant officials that a similar move was, in part, responsible for the riots of 17 June 1953. The workers stated that they would not accept the new planned norms.
2. Workers at VEB Plattenwerke Meissen likewise refused to accept introduction of new increased norms.
